Subject: Conference Call - Floor Price Focus Group Meeting - July 29 at 2pm

This is being sent to past participants of SE-91 Renewable Integration Meetings
=====

The next meeting of the Floor Price Focus Group will take place via conference call on July 29, 2013 at 2:00 pm and the agenda and meeting materials will be posted a week in advance.

All interested stakeholders can register for the conference call by sending an e-mail to stakeholder.engagement@ieso.ca.

The Floor Price Focus Group is an open consultation focused on the design details of the Renewable Integration Design Principles, and is a part of the Renewable Integration (SE-91) stakeholder initiative (http://www.ieso.ca/imoweb/consult/consult_se91.asp). The Renewable Integration Initiative was established to discuss how the IESO will adapt power system operations and the IESO-administered markets to accommodate increases in renewable generation.
